Re: Tax Sheltered Annuity Plans

The IRS requires us to annually inform all employees of their right to participate in 403(b) Tax Sheltered Annuity Plans by payroll deductions. You may make a one-time irrevocable election into the salary deferral.

Below is a list of companies and the contact person if you are interested in tax deferred income by payroll deduction. There are no minimum amounts required. There are maximum amounts mandated by law. You will need to talk with the representative on an individual basis for these amounts.
