Steering the Course for the Future

ELEGANT EVENING, APRIL 28, 2017

How exciting! It's a new year and a new school semester full of amazing educational opportunities preparing our youth for their futures. We at the Camdenton R-III Education Foundation, a 501(3)(c), are excited as well to continue to help support our students and staff as together they forge their skills -- their sails that will propel them along the lake of life.

Outstanding individuals who help steer Lakers with their vessels are to be deservingly highlighted.

Our Hall of Leaders does just that.

We are thrilled to announce that Mrs. Patricia Morgan, Outstanding Educational Professional, will be honored posthumously as our newest Hall of Leaders inductee at our upcoming Elegant Evening at 6:00,

April 28, 2017. Mrs. Morgan's incredible life is compelling, to say the very least.

Please join our excelling youth, dedicated staff, and ourselves for a showcase of talent, in a variety of exciting formats.

From art, music, drama, academia, culinary arts, woodworking, to agriculture and fun, it's an exciting evening you will not forget. Elegant Evening is our sole annual fundraiser. Please plan to join us by going online today and making your reservations at www.camdentonschools.org, under the district information tab and then the education foundation tab or calling (573)346-9213, our Camdenton School District administration's office. You will not regret sharing your time with our gifted Lakers! You will be amazed and excited!

One of the Education Foundation's three areas of support includes college scholarships for deserving Lakers. A second area is our Classroom Impact Grants, which are made available in part by district employees who have chosen to support Lakers through payroll deductions. We are thrilled to share the newest wave of awards! Laker staff continues to amaze us!

Those who were awarded classroom grants this school year are: Jake Williams - Camdenton Middle School, Tasha Callaway and Danny Stoelting - Camdenton High School, Adam Johns and Michelle Neal - Oak Ridge Intermediate, and Rebecca Oakes and Annette Green - Dogwood Elementary.

Buzzing with excitement of refined teaching techniques learned from educators' own continued education is the third area of support the Education Foundation holds in high esteem. With your valued support, this newest area of empowerment, Educator Scholarships for Advanced Degrees, 13 educators have been given scholarships with more to be awarded soon.

Soon Elegant Evening will be here with all of its lights, cameras, and action! Join in the fun, join in with friends and family, and join in the excitement! With your support, our youth and staff have an incredible Laker learning environment and Laker future!

With Laker Pride,
