

Dogwood PASS

FAMILY LITERACY NIGHT

If you want to learn more about helping your child with their reading at home, this is place for you to bring your family, eat dinner, then learn about strategies to help your child be a successful long-life reader. You will participate in word work, comprehension, and reading strategy activities to help your child at home. Parents will rotate to these different activities, while students stay with teachers to participate in games.

WHEN: Tuesday November 4th

WHERE: Dogwood Cafeteria

TIME: 5:30-7:00pm
